ARKANSAS DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS

BOARD OF CORRECTIONS

The Board of Corrections is the governing body of the Department of Corrections. The purpose of the Board of Corrections is to manage correctional resources in the state such that offenders are held accountable for their actions, victims' needs are addressed in a positive manner, and the safety of society is enhanced. The specific powers and duties of the Board were established by Amendment 33 to the Arkansas Constitution and are codified in A.C.A. § 12-27-105 and § 25-43-401. The seven members of the Board of Corrections are appointed by the Governor to serve a term of seven years.

DEPARTMENT LEADERSHIP

The mission of the Arkansas Department of Corrections is to be a public safety resource for Arkansas families by providing professional management solutions and evidence-based rehabilitative initiatives for offenders. The Department embraces the core values of accountability, innovation, integrity, professionalism, respect, and transparency. The Department employed over 4,500 employees during FY24, overseeing an incarcerated population of over 16,000 in ADC facilities and over 71,000 individuals on community supervision.

SHARED SERVICES

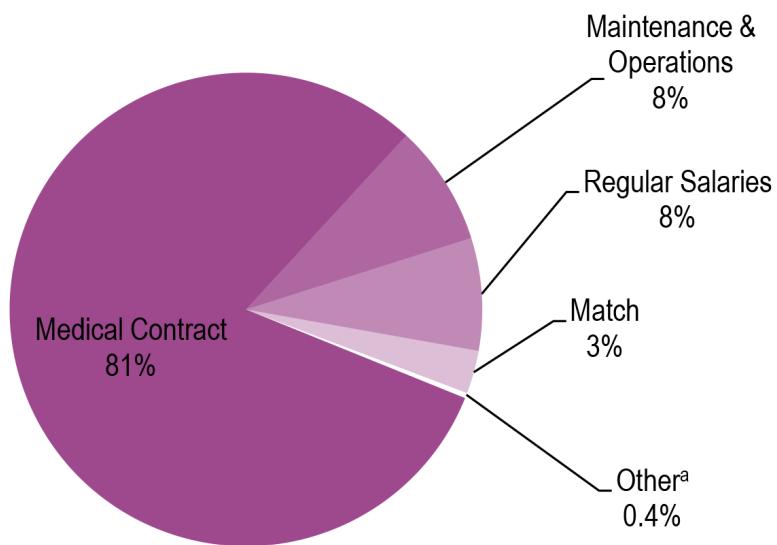

The ARDOC is comprised of various divisions, boards, and commissions. Namely, the ARDOC includes the Division of Correction, Division of Community Correction, Office of the Secretary and Shared Services, Post-Prison Transfer Board, and the Sentencing Commission; however, this report primarily focuses on the institutional and community correction agencies. To adhere to our commitment to transparency, this report emphasizes carceral, employment, and financial information for the fiscal year 2024. We begin with Shared Services and conclude with highlights from the Arkansas Correctional School District.

Shared Services: Vacancy Rates and Expenditures FY 2024

In FY 2024, the ARDOC as a whole had 5,761 budgeted security and non-security positions. Of those positions, 75.4% were filled. This means that the overall staff vacancy rate for the ARDOC was 24.6%. As part of that total, Shared Services had 214 budgeted positions. Of these, 176 were filled. Therefore, the Shared Services vacancy rate was 13.7%.

Position	Budgeted (214)	Filled (176)	Vacancy Rate %
Security	2	2	0.0
Non-Security	212	174	13.7

FY24 Shared Services Expenditures

Note. ^a Other includes professional fees and services and capital outlay.

ARKANSAS DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS

DIVISION OF CORRECTION

In FY 2024, the Division of Correction (ADC) operated 20 prisons across Arkansas and employed over 3,000 people. In the sections that follow, we discuss ADC's vacancy rates, fiscal information, population statistics, and programming opportunities.

ADC: Vacancy Rates FY 2024

ADC had 4,260 security and non-security positions budgeted. Of these, 79.9% were for security positions, while the remaining 20.1% were for non-security. Among the positions filled, 67.2% were for security staff and 84.7% were for non-security, making the overall vacancy rate 29.3%.

Position	Budgeted (4,260)	Filled (3,011)	Vacancy Rate %
Security	3,405	2,287	32.8
Non-Security	855	724	15.3

ADC: Fiscal Summary FY 2024

The general operational budget for the ADC was $434,337,302. This excludes other sections within ADC that produce some or all of their own revenue.

ADC: Comparison of FY 2023 and 2024 Revenue

ADC Revenue	FY 2023	FY 2024	Change %
General	$380,489,377	$434,337,302	14.1
Agriculture and Farm	$9,643,768	$9,026,178	-6.4
Arkansas Correctional Industries	$8,289,286	$8,295,566	0.1
Work Release	$3,990,712	$5,461,979	26.9

Note. Amounts were rounded to the nearest dollar.

Agriculture and Farm FY 2024

The ADC farms produce food for the incarcerated population and generate revenue by selling crops, livestock, fertilizer, and horses. In all, the farms across the state generated $9,026,178 and reduced food costs by $5,061,376. The agriculture division provides an opportunity for incarcerated individuals to learn about livestock, gardening, and farming, which increases their skill set and employability once released. In FY 2024, 3,636 inmates were assigned to work in the agriculture division.

ARKANSAS DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS

Arkansas Correctional Industries FY 2024

Arkansas Correctional Industries (ACI) manufacture and sell various products, generating revenue for the ADC. The products range from furniture to uniforms. Incarcerated individuals assigned to one of the manufacturing programs work in an industrial setting that resembles similar jobs in the private sector. Here, they can develop skills that increase their employment opportunities once released. In FY 2024, 424 inmates participated in an ACI program. ACI earned $8,295,566.

	Inmate Uniforms
	Engraving

Work Release FY 2024

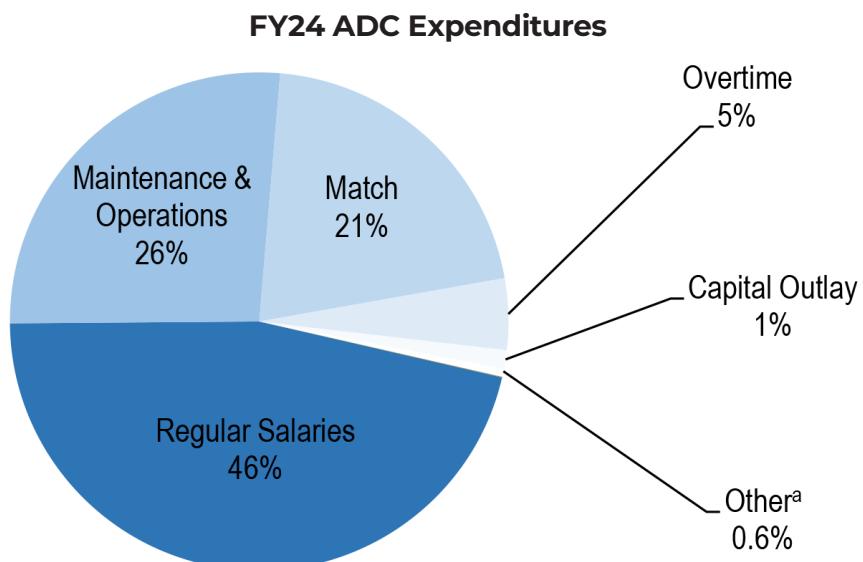

Participants in the Work Release Program work for employers in the community. While in the program, participants can save money and develop skills that enhance their employment prospects once released. The program generates revenue for the ADC by collecting rent from participants. The 701 individuals who participated in the program paid $22 a day to rent a bed in a Work Release facility, up from $17 a day in FY23¹. In total, the program collected $5,461,979 in rent. This means that the program's revenue was 26.9% higher than it was the previous year.

Expenditures FY 2024

The amount expended for the “Inmate Care and Custody” was $417,506,575. The daily cost for housing an incarcerated individual in an ADC prison was $70.43, compared to $69.59 in FY 2023. Though ADC’s farms reduced food costs by $5,061,375, the cost of food per day increased from $2.18 in FY 2023 to $4.92 in FY 2024. Overall, ADC expenditures totaled $469,289,163.

ADC: Counts and Institutional Capacities FY 2024

During FY 2024, 5,728 people were admitted to the ADC, while 4,772 were released from incarceration. At the end of FY 2024, the custody count (i.e., individuals housed in an ADC prison) was 16,429. The jurisdictional count is comprised of individuals housed in an ADC prison, a contracted facility, at the Arkansas Law Enforcement Training Academy (ALETA), Arkansas State Police headquarters, those on Interstate Compact, and waiting in county jail back-up. The jurisdictional count was 18,957.

County Jail Back-Up FY 2024

The average number of people on the county jail back-up list fluctuated throughout the year. More specifically, in July 2023, the average number of people on the county jail back-up list was 2,130, but by December, the number declined by 22%. Despite this mid-year decline, the average increased to 2,051 by the end of the fiscal year. That number is down slightly from the average of 2,070 in FY23.

ADC: Programming and Job Assignments FY 2024

Carceral programs can improve participants' well-being, physical health, and decrease their risk of reoffending after release.* Program and job opportunities can also enhance an incarcerated individual's employability once they are released, which also reduces the risk of reincarceration.

ADC: Disciplinary Violations FY 2024

ADC staff issued 97,536 disciplinaries to incarcerated individuals for alleged rule violations, 12.5% more than the previous year. Of the disciplinaries issued, 71.4% (69,615) resulted in a guilty verdict by a disciplinary hearing officer. From FY 2023 to FY 2024, the number of guilty verdicts increased by 16.5%. * For incarcerated men and women, the top six disciplinaries were the same, with the most common disciplinary being “failure to obey order of staff.”

Top Six Disciplinaries in ADC Facilities by Gender for FY 2024

* In FY 2023, 59,728 guilty verdicts were found on the 86,678 disciplinaries issued.

ARKANSAS DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS DIVISION OF COMMUNITY CORRECTION

The Division of Community Correction (ACC) is responsible for supervising over 70,000 individuals who were paroled or sentenced to probation or a specialty court. Additionally, in FY 2024, ACC operated six treatment facilities across Arkansas that housed an average of 1,819 people (i.e., community correction centers). Below, we describe staff vacancy rates, supervision fees and expenditures, and population statistics. We also discuss community supervision and programming in ACC centers. Finally, we display offense type by race as required by A.C.A. § 12-27-140.

ACC: Vacancy Rates FY 2024

Of the 1,297 budgeted positions for the ACC, 891 were budgeted for security staff (i.e., community supervision officers and correctional officers), while 406 were for non-security positions. Of the budgeted security positions, 88.6% were filled, while 90.6% of non-security were filled. In total, 89.2% of ACC's budgeted positions were filled. Only 10.8% of budgeted positions were vacant.

ACC: Programming Development and Participant Success FY 2024

Community correction centers operate as drug and alcohol treatment facilities. This means that all incarcerated individuals receive 20 hours of treatment each week. In addition to drug and alcohol treatment, individuals can participate in other types of programs and services. Some of the interventions offered to participants are described below.

ServSafe is a nationally certified program that prepares participants to work in the food service industry upon release. Throughout the year, 121 individuals participated in ServSafe classes. Of these individuals, 68% (82) earned a ServSafe certification.

WAGE, a work readiness program, prepares individuals for entry-level jobs once they are released. In FY 2024, 352 incarcerated individuals enrolled in WAGE and 259 completed the program.

Shorter College offers college classes to incarcerated individuals. In FY 2024, 405 individuals enrolled in courses offered by Shorter College.

In all, 858 individuals took GED classes in ACC centers. Of these individuals, 13% (113) graduated.

The Medication Assisted Treatment (MAT) program is for individuals who are opioid dependent and incarcerated in an ACC center. Though the program begins while the participants are incarcerated, they complete treatment in the community. In FY 2024, 156 enrolled in the MAT program.

Reentry Program FY 2024

The Reentry Program is a residential intervention that aims to reduce well-known reintegration barriers for participants approaching release. The program allows participants to live, work, and participate in behavioral programming in a community-based reentry facility during the last months of their incarceration. There were five licensed Reentry facilities with the capacity to house 209 participants. While in the six-month program, Reentry staff assists participants with enrolling in school, creating resumes, and obtaining important documentation (e.g., driver's license), housing, and employment. During FY 2024, 404 individuals participated in the program. Of the participants, 73% completed the program. Among the graduates, 68.1% obtained a driver's license, 84.4% left with their social security card, and 46.1% left with their birth certificate.

ARKANSAS CORRECTIONAL SCHOOL

Career and Technical Education FY 2024

The Arkansas Correctional School District (ACSD) aims to prepare incarcerated students for employment upon release and expand their educational obtainment level. The school offers a general education development (GED) diploma to incarcerated individuals who did not complete high school. In FY 2024, 607 students earned their GED (494 from ADC and 113 from ACC).

The school also offers career technical education (CTE) programs. While most CTE programs last six months, others range from four weeks (e.g., ServSafe) to fifteen months (e.g., cosmetology). In total, 289 students completed a CTE program and 1,468 earned an industry-recognized certificate.
